

Tyler Carawan Cline
History Department, University of Florida
P.O. Box 117320
Gainesville, FL 32611-7320
Phone: 207-907-0657
Email: tyler.cline@ufl.edu

EDUCATION

Ph.D. Student in History
University of Florida, 2019-present
Dissertation Topic Nativism in the North Atlantic Triangle (U.S., Canada, and Britain)
Doctoral Advisor: Dr. Jessica Harland-Jacobs

M.A., Canadian History
University of Maine, 2017
Thesis: “A Dragon, Bog-Spawned, Is Now Stretched O’er This Land”: Nativism and the Rise of Patriotic-Protestantism in the Northeastern Borderlands During the 1920s and 1930s
Thesis Advisor: Scott W. See

B.A., History with a minor in English
University of Maine, 2014, Magna cum laude, Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Alpha Theta

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Nativism; United States, Canada, and Great Britain; Transnational/Atlantic Studies; Ku Klux Klan; Radicalism

PUBLICATIONS

Journal Articles

“A Dragon, Bog-Spawned, Is Now Stretched O’er This Land’: The Ku Klux Klan’s Patriotic-Protestantism in the Northeastern Borderlands During the 1920s and 1930s,” Histoire Sociale/Social History LII, no. 106 (Forthcoming, November 2019)

“A Clarion Call To Real Patriots The World Over:’ The Curious Case of the Ku Klux Klan of Kanada in New Brunswick During the 1920s and 1930s,” Acadiensis 48, no. 1 (Spring 2019): 88-110.

“Orangeism, A Great Protestant Crusade’: The Nativist Legacy of the Orange Order in the Northeastern Borderlands,” American Review of Canadian Studies 48, no. 2 (Summer 2018): 125-137.

Online Publications

“Labor Radicalism and Repression in the Woods of Maine” The Activist History Review (Online), October 6, 2017.

“Canada is Not That Special” The Outline (Online), June 30, 2017.

Other Publications

Entry for “KKK and White League.” In Conspiracies and Conspiracy Theories in American History, eds. Christopher R. Fee and Jeffrey B. Webb, 365-369. Santa Barbara, CA: ABC-CLIO, 2019.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Grader, History Department, University of Florida
Early America, Fall 2019

Teaching Assistant, History Department, University of Maine
History of Ancient and Medieval Europe, Spring 2016
History of Modern Europe, Fall 2015

FELLOWSHIPS AND GRANTS

2019-2020 – Graduate School Funding Award, University of Florida

2017 – Charles J. Dunn Research Grant, History Department, University of Maine

2016-2017 – New England-Atlantic Provinces-Quebec Fellowship, Canadian-American Center,
University of Maine

2016 – Graduate Student Government Grant, Graduate School, University of Maine

CONFERENCE ACTIVITY

“‘Orangeism, A Great Protestant Crusade’: The Nativist Legacy of the Orange Order in the Northeastern Borderlands”: Mid-Atlantic-New England Council for Canadian Studies Conference, Lake Placid, New York, October 2018.

“‘A Dragon, Bog-Spawned, Is Now Stretched O’er This Land’: Catholic Conspiracies, Americanism Under Siege, and the Maine Ku Klux Klan in the 1920s”: University of Maine-University of New Brunswick Annual History Graduate Student Conference, Orono, Maine, October 2016.

UNIVERSITY AND DEPARTMENT SERVICE

2016-2017 – Student Graduate Specialist, Franco-American Centre, University of Maine

2016-2017 – History Graduate Student Association Treasurer, University of Maine

IN THE MEDIA

“Quand le Ku Klux Klan sévissait au Nouveau-Brunswick.” interviewed and research utilized by Simon Delattre, L’Acadie Nouvelle, September 29, 2018. (French language publication).

“How The KKK Helped Elect A Maine Governor — The State's Long History With Hate Groups.” interviewed by Mal Leary, Maine Public Radio, August 30, 2017.

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

Middle Atlantic and New England Council for Canadian Studies